

4.2.1 - Library is automated using Integrated Library Management System (ILMS)

Name of the ILMS software : Library Information System(LIS)

Nature of automation (fully or partially): FULLY

Version: In house developed Software

Year of automation: 2006

- The library has computers with internet connectivity for accessing e – journals. It subscribes journals and periodicals of national level. It has separate reading zones cater to the faculty and students
- Through database prepared by LIS, reading material are easily made available to the readers.
- By this software, following reports can be availed: Book search, Issue/return details, Missing book report, Use list (Staff & Students), Periodical details, charge collection details, Author list, Book history, Purchase detail, Subject List etc.
- OPAC (Online public access catalogue) is provided to the students and staff members to access the library collection.
- Library timings are from 10am. to 6pm., on all Working days.
- Library is having total 50 students seating space at a time.
- Content Management system for E LEARNING, audio and video CDs and DVDs are provided.
- E-Library facilities like DELNET and NDL is available.
- Printing, downloading facility is made available to the users as per need.
- The library staff is always ready to assist the students and staff in searching books and provide information about recently added books. The library staff helps to download the reference materials.
- University old examination paper sets are made available in the library for reference of students and faculty.
- Beside the textbooks our library enriched with various reference books to enhance knowledge of faculty as well students. Various magazines, newspapers and journals are available for them to update their knowledge with latest researches.
- Books related to competitive exams are available for students and faculty in library.

Faculty members provide the list of required books as per the syllabi and copies of the texts, reference books and journals needed for study and teaching. This is forwarded to the management committee. The librarian refers the details and contacts the suppliers or agencies. As per budgetary provision, the books and other reading material are purchased.